

planning, organisational, problem solving and research skills. A valid driver's licence.

Is

DUTIES

:

Develop and maintain an appropriate staggered methodology for accreditation standards, and the procedures for accreditation, including minimum required range of personal health care services specified, appropriate number and mix of health care professionals, in accordance with guidelines, to deliver the health care services specified, adherence to treatment protocols and guidelines, including prescribing medicines and procuring health products from the Formulary, etc. Develop, publish and revise (when appropriate) accreditation regulations and published guidelines. Develop and maintain an appropriate staggered